

Parking Ticket Check Device LD-P3036

Zenidea self-service payment terminal is designed to streamline and enhance the customer checkout experience. Our innovative terminal offers a user-friendly interface that allows customers to complete their transactions quickly and efficiently, reducing wait times and improving overall satisfaction. With secure payment processing options and seamless integration with various payment methods, including credit/debit cards, mobile wallets, and contactless payments, our terminal caters to the diverse needs of modern consumers.

Features

- Ticket system
- LCD display
- Ticket printing for automatic parking
- Monthly pass, annual pass
- one-click ticket collection

Technical Specifications

|                       |                                                                  |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Housing Dimension     | 1350*280*316mm                                                   |
| Body Materials        | Carbon Steel Paint+Baking Finish                                 |
| Operating Voltage     | AC220V - AC110V                                                  |
| Operating Temperature | -20℃ ~ +70℃                                                      |
| Card system           | IC/Ticket/ID                                                     |
| Ticket system         | Barcode ticket scanner                                           |
| Housing Thickness     | 2-3mm                                                            |
| Relative humidity     | 10%-95%RH                                                        |
| Complete accessories  | Controller,loop detector,LCD display,ticket printer ,card reader |
| Other accessories     | Charging ticket scanner,Pos cashier and parking software         |
| Operating Environment | outdoor                                                          |

